NOVAtime's new Payroll-Based Journal (PBJ) reporting provides the resources need for Ozanam Hall to efficiently complete their first report.

DIAMOND BAR, CALIF., January 10, 2017 – NOVAtime Technology, Inc. (<http://www.novatime.com>), a leading provider of Workforce Management solutions for enterprise organizations, supports implementation of Payroll-Based Journal (PBJ) reporting for Ozanam Hall. Ozanam Hall located in Bayside, New York has filed their Payroll-Based Journal reporting to comply with the new mandate that went into effect on July 1, 2016 under The Affordable Care Act (ACA).

Ozanam Hall (<http://www.ozanamhall.org/>) has been offering short term rehabilitation as well as skilled geriatric care since 1970. Ozanam Hall was founded on Catholic values that are still present in their mission statement today. The goal of Ozanam Hall is to provide compassion, hospitality, and commitment to over 400 Residents that call their facility home. Ozanam Hall uses 11 fingerprint timeclocks for over 800 employees. Ozanam Hall pairs NOVAtime Workforce Management / Time and Attendance system with Great Plains for their payroll needs.

Ozanam Hall started using NOVAtime in 2013 when their previous time and attendance system failed to meet their needs. To provide top of the line care and assistance for its residents, Ozanam Hall needed to utilize reports that weren't available to them in the previous system. NOVAtime has over 100 report templates that can be generated and customized by their clients. The Ozanam team stated, "The NOVAtime system is easy to work with and can generate powerful reports we need on a daily basis."

An additional benefit of the NOVAtime system is its facilitation of the Center for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) PBJ process. Ozanam Hall successfully filed their first Payroll-Based Journal reporting using the NOVAtime system. The Ozanam team explains, "Our first filing of PBJ went very well. When we ran the report, the NOVAtime system displayed the errors in the report so that we were able to correct them before the report was submitted to the CMS."

Ozanam Hall is serviced by NOVAtime's premier reseller, Andrews Technology.
